IMPORTANT SHIPPING INFORMATION

Please make sure that none of your possessions are left behind at your home. Be sure to check closets, cabinets, drawers, attics, and basement, outside areas, and storage units before signing the bill of lading or other documents. Eagle Van Lines, Inc. will not be responsible for any items left behind.

DUE TO INSURANCE CONCERNS EAGLE MAY DECLINE TO TRANSPORT THE FOLLOWING ITEMS:

Bank bills, coins or currency; deeds, notes, drafts, stocks, bonds, or valuable papers of any kind; jewelry; postage or revenue stamps; stamp collections; guns; garments of excessive value (over $1,500.00); and precious stones (or anything made from them). If you want Eagle Van Lines, Inc. to take any of these items, you must present them directly to the person in charge of the move (usually the driver) prior to loading, so that an excessive value inventory form can be prepared. Please lock your file cabinets and take the keys with you. In addition, take the remote controls for your TVs, stereos, and VCRs. Please remember to properly and carefully pack all small and fragile items. Loose or unpacked items (such as lamps, lamp shades, small kitchen appliances, etc.) will not be removed unless they are in boxes. Please take with you enough clothing, medication, important personal information, and children's toys, so that your family will be comfortable until the truck arrives at your destination.

WE CANNOT TRANSPORT THE FOLLOWING ITEMS:

COMBUSTIBLE LIQUIDS: Alcohol/ liquor in containers that have had the seal broken, antifreeze, disinfectants, or any type of combustible cleaning agents.

CORROSIVE LIQUIDS: Batteries, acids, iron/steel rust preventing compounds.

EXPLOSIVES: Black powder, dynamite, plastic or smaller explosives, fireworks, or small arms ammunition.

FLAMMABLES: Adhesives (glues/cements), aerosol cans, hair spray, deodorants, perfumes, colognes, ammonia, cleaning fluids, weed killer, gasoline, hand signal flares, kerosene, lighter fluids, matches, paint, paint removers, stains/lacquers, varnish, thinners, or liquid polishes.

COMPRESSED GASES: Engine starting fluids, fire extinguishers, gasses used in welding, scuba-diving tanks (unpurged and for domestic shipments only), or propane tanks (unpurged and for domestic shipments only).

A FEW THINGS TO ARRANGE BEFORE THE MOVE:

Empty lawn mowers and other engines of fuel and oil. Take down anything that is permanently attached to the wall or ceiling if you want to take it, unless you have told us to hire somebody else to attend to it. Empty and defrost the refrigerator and freezer. Perishable foods will not be accepted for transport or storage. Transport all small guns and ammunition yourself. Empty all dresser, chest and similar drawers of all possessions including clothing, books, and jewelry. It is the customer's responsibility to dismantle and save the hardware for all furniture (such as particleboard or cardboard desks and file cabinets) that was designed to be sold in parts. According to ICC regulations, Eagle Van Lines cannot be responsible for any damages to such articles as listed above.
